ACA Reporting Are You Ready?

Regulatory & Legislative Strategy Group

On Tuesday, November 23, 2021, the IRS issued a “Notice of Proposed Rulemaking” that provides a permanent automatic 30-day extension to the January 31 deadline for Applicable Large Employers (ALEs) to furnish Form 1095-C to employees. The deadline relief also applies to health plans and issuers providing Form 1095-B and permits issuers to use an alternative method for furnishing the 1095-B forms to participants.

Please join us as we discuss these changes and review Forms 1094-C and 1095-C reporting requirements for calendar year 2021. While much of the information covered in this presentation may be a refresher for many, we will also discuss minor revisions that apply to reporting some offers of health coverage.

Topics covered include:

- Employers subject to reporting
- Delivery and filing requirements
- General reporting method and required information
- Reporting codes
- Reporting scenarios
